

Instructor Bios – For Players

Adrian Foster: A retired, Calgary-developed professional hockey player who has had a successful 13-year career. Adrian Foster was drafted in the first round of the 2001 NHL entry draft by the New Jersey Devils, and went on to play for several other NHL organizations in the minor leagues as well. Following his playing stint in North America, he played for professional teams in the top leagues in Austria, Germany, Russia, and Sweden.

Acceleration Hockey will instruct both U11 & U13

Adrian's expertise in hockey and experience working with kids has ignited a passion for developing youth hockey players. He has over 15 years' experience in youth hockey development and is a nationally certified coach. He is especially effective in breaking down and explaining the mechanics of hockey skills and creating customized skill development sessions. His enthusiasm, creativity, and credibility has resulted in a unique ability to connect with hockey players of all ages and abilities.

Mike Evans: Mike has over twenty-eight years' experience teaching power skating and hockey skills, including twelve years as co-owner of P&P Power Skating Inc. and has solely owned Core Power for 10 years.

Core Power will instruct the U13 group

Mike has worked with elite players at the Peewee, Bantam, AAA Midget, Junior, and College levels. Mike has also worked with some of the elite NHL players that are from Calgary. Mike played four years of professional hockey as a forward, including stops in the ECHL/WPHL & Europe.

Before his professional career Mike received an athletic scholarship to the University of Massachusetts/Amherst. Mike's innovative drills and ability to perfect the skating stride and incorporate that into other facets of hockey skills is critical to attaining success as an elite athlete.

Deanna Curran
Power Skating

Deanna Curran: Deanna Curran has been an innovator in the field of power skating for over 35 years. She has worked predominantly in the Calgary area but her expertise and reputation has taken her as far as Japan.

Deanna Curran will instruct the U11 group

Although she works with all levels of professional players, her ability to reach all ages and skill levels is what sets her apart. Her command of the ice and her skaters allows for quick, easy acquisition of skills. She works hard and expects the same of everyone she works with.

Trevor Elias: Trevor Elias, current head of skill development at Mount Royal University, is a professional development coach working with players of all ages and skill levels. After his high-level playing career that included Junior A, NCAA, and ended playing professionally in Germany, Trevor has dedicated himself to developing his craft and teaching the next generation of hockey superstars.

Elias Hockey will instruct both U11 & U13

Trevor has been fortunate enough to learn from some of hockey's greatest coaches including Jeff Blashil (Current coach of the Detroit Red Wings) Andy Murray (Over 20 years NHL experience, IIHF Hall Of Fame) and currently working with Bert Gilling (2x Canada West Coach of the Year). His playing career and former coaches gives him a unique perspective on skill development and what is needed to excel at the highest levels.

Trevor focuses on skills that players can take from practice directly into gameplay. His ability to innovate and demonstrate highly progressive drills pushes players for more rapid results. He thoroughly enjoys making a connection with his athletes and watching their growth on and off the ice.

Instructor Bios – For Goalies

Marcus Beesley Senior Head Instructor 	Marcus Beesley joined World Pro Goaltending in 2011 and since 2014, he has been the Goaltending Consultant for the Airdrie CFR Bisons (AMHL).
